

Dates: 10 – 21 February 2025

Location: The Centre of Excellence for Stability Police Units (CoESPU), Vicenza, Italy

United Nations Formed Police Units Pre-deployment Training Curriculum Review Workshop

Aim and Objectives:

Develop the Pre-deployment Training Curriculum for the training of United Nations Formed Police Units. The review process is already underway since 2022. The workshop will be used to assess the progress of work and adjust the content to align with the newly released FPU policy, the Strategic Guidance Framework for International Policing and other relevant legal frameworks and doctrines. A comprehensive updated training package of is expected at the end of the workshop.

Call for Nominations: Nomination was sent to selected participants only.

Target Audience:

The Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) and officer with requisite United Nations Formed Police Units curriculum building related experience in UN Peacekeeping Operations. These personalities are already engaged in the development of the materials from start. They are from ITS, DPO, UNITAR, INL/IPPOS and some selected from Member States.