

RTP CP UNPOL Module 7

Dos and Don'ts for the UN Police

Aim

UNPOL play a critical role in guiding and training the host-State police in adopting child-friendly techniques in their interaction with children

It is important for UNPOL officers to be fully aware of United Nations guidance and approaches relating to interacting and communicating with children, which would inform their advisory and mentoring role in support of the host-State police

Learning Objectives

At the end of this module, learners will be able to:

- Recall key messages from each module
- Correctly apply the key messages in their capacity-building role vis-à-vis the host-State police

Module Overview

Dos and Don'ts for the United Nations Police

Learning Activity 7.1 – Dos and don'ts exercise

Learning Activity 7.1

Instructions

- Each group will receive a handout with 60 statements
- In the group, discuss the statements and indicate whether it is a “do” or a “don’t” (35 minutes)
- In the plenary, each group will read the statements for one module out loud and indicate their answer
- The other participants will show thumbs up or thumbs down to show their agreement or disagreement with the answer