Training of Trainers Course on UN Infantry Battalions

Aim and Objectives:

The objective of the course is to strengthen the capacity of the Member States to deliver the new mandatory training package for United Nations Infantry Battalions (UNIBAT STM). The training programme will also provide participants with opportunities to improve their training delivery skills and enable direct interactions with trainers from ITS and other Member States. The course will be conducted in English.

Target Audience:

The participants are training officers from Troop Contributing Countries at the ranks of Captain to Colonel with relevant background in commanding infantry or similar military units and have experience in delivering training and be able to deliver the course material to the national deploying units. Participation is subject to official nominations via the permanent mission in NY from the invited nations.
