UNITED NATIONS SENIOR NATIONAL PLANNERS COURSE

Aim and Objectives:

To provide training on the process for the negotiation, planning, preparation, deployment, support, sustainment, rotation and reimbursement of national contingents deploying to United Nations Peace Operations with the aim to improve new and existing contributions.

Target Audience:

This training programme is designed for decision-makers and planning officers responsible for deploying national contingents to UN Peace Operations. Over the course of ten days, participants will learn about UN administrative and technical procedures, as well as the complexities and challenges involved in negotiating, planning, preparing, deploying, supporting, sustaining, and terminating national contingents.

The target audience will be selected in consultation with various Secretariat offices, focusing on new or emerging troop and police contributors and other major or priority contributing nations.
