Location: Berlin, Germany

United Nations Women's Military Peace Operations Course (WMPOC), 22 July to 9 August 2024

Aim and Objectives: The aim of this course is to increase women's full, equal, and meaningful participation in United Nations (UN) Peace Operations, in accordance with UN Security Council Resolution 2242 (2015) and the UN Uniformed Gender Parity Strategy 2018-2028. The primary focus of the course will be to:

- Meaningfully engage military women and foster their development
- Prepare them for deployment to UN Peace Operations

The training will also enable participants to interact directly with subject matter experts, UN DPO and national peace operations training centre personnel, as well as other military officers with experience in Peace Operations .

Call for Nominations: Invitation to be sent out in May 2024.

Target Audience:

Women military officers from different services in the rank of Captain to Lieutenant Colonel or equivalent; aged between 25 and 55 years old; identified by their Member State to be nominated for deployment or already accepted by the UN DPO Force Generation Service (FGS) to deploy to UN Peace Operations, or identified for employment at a national training center which leads peacekeeper pre-deployment training; should have a good command of English Language; No prior UN Peace Operations experience is required.
