

Dates: 28 October – 15 November 2024

Location: Royal Thai Armed Forces Peace Operations Center, Bangkok, Thailand

United Nations Women's Military Peace Operations Course (WMPOC)

Aim and Objectives:

The aim of this course is to increase women's full, equal, and meaningful participation in United Nations (UN) Peace Operations, in accordance with UN Security Council Resolution 2242 (2015) and the UN Uniformed Gender Parity Strategy 2018-2028. The primary focus of the course will be to:

- Meaningfully engage military women and foster their development
- Prepare them for deployment to UN Peace Operations

The training will also enable participants to interact directly with subject matter experts, national peace operations training centre personnel, and other military officers with experience in Peace Operations .

Call for Nominations: Deadline for the registration to be submitted – 31 July 2024

Target Audience:

Women military officers from any branch or service in the rank of Captain to Lieutenant Colonel or equivalent; aged between 25 and 55 years old; accepted for deployment to UN Peace Operations by DPO's FGS of the OMA, or to be nominated for deployment to UN Peace Operations upon invitation from FGS at the completion of the WMPOC, or to be employed or continue to be employed as an instructor at the national peacekeeping training centre; should have a good command of English Language; No prior experience with UN Peace Operations is strongly preferred.