United Nations Police Commanders Course, 2025

Aim and Objectives:

The aim of the UNPCC is to ensure that appointed or potential UN Heads of Police Component (HOPCs) and other senior UN police leaders possess the core competencies, skills and necessary knowledge to exercise their functions as leaders in UN police components and members of the mission senior management team realizing the principles, objectives, and methodology of UN policing as enshrined in the Strategic Guidance Framework (SGF) for International Police Peacekeeping (SGF) and other UN relevant frameworks, guidance and policies.

Call for Nominations: Nomination and selection is done by Police Division.

Target Audience:

Participants of the once-a-year UNPCC are managerial professionals, already appointed or potentially appointed as UN Police Commissioner(s)/Deputy Commissioner(s) and/or senior managers/command staff at the P5 to D2 levels to serve in a UN police component in a UN peace operation.
