

Dates: 17 to 28 June 2025

Location: Stans, Switzerland

United Nations Military Officers Pilot/Validation Course, 17 to 28 June 2025

Aim and Objectives:

The training materials addresses the conceptual, legal and operational aspect of the employment of Military Observers, while mainstreaming aspects of protection of civilians, gender, security risk management (SRM) and improvised explosive device (IED) safety.

This Pilot/Validation Course aims at validating the Draft STM UNMO for accuracy, consistency, completeness and deliverability with a view to correct and finalize it before approval by USG DPO and roll out to the TCCs.

Call for Nominations: The Subject Matter Experts for this activity are part of a working group, currently reviewing the UNMO STM.

Target Audience:

Be a serving military officer in the rank of captain to Lieutenant-Colonel or equivalent; Good command of the English Language; Served in UN peacekeeping mission as a Military Observers in the last 3 years and Have experience in administering, generating, or training Military Observers for UN Missions; Nomination of female participants with these criteria is highly encouraged.