Role of the Deputy-Chief of Operations for FPU

- In DPKO missions where several FPUs are deployed, the primary deputy of the Chief of Operations for the police component shall be the Deputy-Chief of Operations for Formed Police Units (formerly known as FPU Coordinator).
- While the Deputy-Chief Ops (FPU) is under the authority and command of the COO, he/she also has a direct advisory role towards the HOPC on pertinent issues related to FPUs.
- All FPUs are subordinated to the Deputy-Chief Ops (FPU) unless he/she delegates this authority to regional UNPOL commanders/coordinators.

FPU Advisory / Coordination Unit

- To facilitate the tasks of the Deputy-Chief Ops (FPU), an FPU support office shall be established.
- In large mission areas in which the police component as a whole follows a regional structure and a number of FPUs are deployed, it may be necessary to establish a representative of the Deputy-Chief Ops (FPU) in each region.
- The FPU Advisory/Coordination Unit serves to support the DCOPS(FPU) in his/her responsibilities including decision-making, planning, supervision, coordination, liaison, and administration, among others .
